EVENT INTRODUCTION FOR _____

FOR MAKING PEACE WITH PRICKLY PEOPLE PRESENTATIONS:

What if you could transform all your relationships from prickly to pleasing? The secret to this life-changing transformation is given in Scripture, and our next speaker is going to share that with you now.

We're excited to have Deb Potts with us today. She is new to _____ but has spoken to over 4,000 people about forgiveness, healing, and destiny. Deb is a speaker, author, and mentor to married couples. She and her husband Bruce lead the marriage ministries at their church campus. She's a personality specialist and loves to share a bit about our quirky personalities every time she speaks.

Deb lives in Rochester, Michigan. She met Bruce in a calculus class in college, which is why she thinks math is VERY romantic! Bruce and Deb's personalities are perfectly matched; they are opposite in every way!

Deb's book, "Making Peace with Prickly People" was published in the fall of 2016 in paperback and ebook formats. She loves to encourage and equip women for exceptional life. Please help me welcome Deb Potts.
