TWO LINE BIO (32 words)

Deb Potts is a speaker, author, and marriage mentor. She loves to encourage and equip others for the exceptional life found in Jesus Christ. Connect with Deb and learn more at www.debpotts.com.

SHORT BIO (50 words)

Deb Potts is a speaker, author, and marriage mentor. She loves to encourage and equip others for the exceptional life found in Jesus Christ. She has shared her message with over 4,000 people in coffee shops and auditoriums, with humor and candor. Connect with Deb and learn more at www.debpotts.com.

SHORT BIO (109 words)

Deb Potts is a speaker who loves to share the wisdom God has taught her about forgiveness, healing, and destiny. Deb is a personality specialist, trained by Florence Littauer. She weaves a little about personalities into all her presentations. Deb has been speaking publicly since 2006 and has shared her message to over 4,000 people in coffee shops and auditoriums, with humor and candor. She loves to encourage and equip others to experience the exceptional life found in Jesus Christ.

Her book, Making Peace with Prickly People, reveals the secret to making peace in every relationship, with God, self, and others. Connect with Deb and learn more at www.debpotts.com.

SHORT BIO (130 words)

Deb Potts is a Christian Women's Ministry speaker, Bible study teacher, blogger, and marriage mentor. She and her husband lead the campus marriage team at their church campus. God called Deb to follow Him just at the brink of a family tragedy. She loves to share her amazing journey of healing with anyone who will listen. Her greatest joy is passing on the wisdom God taught her about forgiveness, healing, and destiny.

Deb has shared her message with over 4,000 people since 2006. She loves to connect with women in coffee shops and auditoriums, in speaking and writing, with humor and candor. She is a personality specialist, trained by Florence Littauer. She weaves a little about our quirky personalities into every message. Connect with Deb and learn more at www.debpotts.com.

FULL BIO (215 words)

Deb Potts is a Christian Women's Ministry speaker, Bible study teacher, blogger, and marriage mentor. She and her husband lead the campus marriage team at their church campus. God called Deb to follow Him just at the brink of a family tragedy. She loves to share her amazing journey of healing with anyone who will listen. Her greatest joy is passing on the wisdom God taught her about forgiveness, healing, and destiny.

Deb has shared her message with over 4,000 people since 2006. She loves to connect with women in coffee shops and auditoriums, in speaking and writing, with humor and candor. She is a personality specialist, trained by Florence Littauer. She weaves a little about our quirky personalities into every message. Deb believes the exceptional life described in the Bible is possible for us today, and aims to encourage and equip her audiences to reach for that abundant life.

Deb's book is Making Peace with Prickly People: Transforming Relationships by Loving God, Self, and Others. She describes it as a Spiritual Relationships for Dummies. Deb reveals the Biblical secret to making peace in relationships – by loving God, self, and others. Deb offers a free personality assessment, Prickly People Prayer Calendar, and study guide at her website. Connect with Deb and learn more at www.debpotts.com.